

Wholesalers – Free Brochure Printing

We have an in house facility to design and print full colour laminated brochures for your business. Designed to showcase your selected listing of Waldron's desserts, we will include any information you want, such as your selling prices, code numbers etc., anything that will help maximise your sales.

The process is simple: we ask you what products you want on the brochure, together with your logo, phone numbers, email address, website, prices and code numbers. We design the brochure and email you a proof for you to check over. When it has been approved we print it in full digital laminated colour. We can do from a single sided A4 right up to a double sided A3 folded.

This service is completely FREE!

There is no catch, and as we all know nothing is really free, the reason we can do this is that it increases our sales with you. We have case studies showing increases of 400% once a brochure is designed.

Delivery Service

Because we own our cold storage facilities, we aim for a target of:- order on day one for delivery on day three to most regions of the UK and Ireland.

European deliveries depend on specific countries, but 4 to 5 days on average.

All pallets are double wrapped, securely taped and clearly labelled
